

Welcome...

Welcome to Orleans Homebuilders' exceptional community of time honored single-family homes- Legend Oaks, located in Chatham County, N.C. This Orleans Homebuilders' community offers the best of what homebuyers want: spacious home sites, convenient shopping and close proximity to major highways, as well as thoughtfully designed, well crafted homes built to accommodate your lifestyle.

At Orleans Homebuilders, we pride ourselves on building not only skillfully constructed homes, but well planned communities designed for today's busy lifestyle. Strategically situated, Legend Oaks' location is additionally complimented by close proximity to Chapel Hill. And with only 62 home sites, Legend Oaks promises to be an exclusive and quaint community.

Outside Legend Oaks, discover the Town of Chapel Hill, a community rich in recreation and cultural resources. The Town of Chapel Hill offers entertainment for the entire family. Chapel Hill offers a wealth of cultural options including The Art Center, Morehead Planetarium and the Chapel Hill Museum to name a few. Take a stroll through the North Carolina Botanical Garden or discover the many parks where you can explore the miles of bicycle trails. And with the University of Chapel Hill just around the corner, there is a variety of entertainment from theater productions to catching any of the University's outstanding sports teams.

Once inside the estate homes at Legend Oaks discover the innovation, impressive craftsmanship and uncompromising quality that are built into every Orleans home. These plans feature up to six bedrooms situated on acre-plus home sites with all the designer touches you expect including gourmet kitchens with granite countertops, hardwood floors and much more. This collection of homes offers many structural options like the Grand Morning rooms and media rooms. At the Design Center you have the unique opportunity to work one-on-one with a Design Consultant to personalize the home to fit your individual lifestyle.

For more than 90 years, Orleans Homebuilders has been offering superior homes with a solid, enduring and proud tradition of reliability and excellence. This tradition of quality comes from three generations of Orleans' devotion to building in value and distinction. Founded by Alfred P. Orleans, Orleans Homebuilders is synonymous with quality homebuilding. Today, over 82,500 homes later, Alfred's grandson, Jeffrey Orleans continues to lead the company in the proud tradition of excellence that has made it one of the Southeast's largest, trusted and most respected homebuilders.

